

WRJ Mission Statement

Women of Reform Judaism, an affiliate of the Union for Reform Judaism, is the collective voice and presence of women in congregational life. Stronger together, we enhance the quality and ideals of contemporary Jewish living to ensure the future of progressive Judaism in North America, Israel, and around the world.

WRJ Central District Nominating Committee

Department: Executive Committee

Supervisory Contact: Immediate Past President/Chair of Nominating Committee

WRJ Resources:

Objectives:

- To play an active role in filling any vacancies that occur in the district on the Executive Committee or chair positions during the current administration
- To play an active role in selecting the Executive Committee and chair positions for the next administration

Expectations:

- Attend district events and become familiar with women from throughout the district
- Develop an understanding of the fundamentals of Central District
- Become familiar with the contents of the Nominating Committee notebook
- Communicate with Nominating Committee Chair
- Be an active member of your local Sisterhood
- Willingness to make phone calls throughout the district when vacancies occur during the current administration or in selection of the next administration

Responsibilities:

- Become familiar with the WRJ Central District Bylaws and Policies noting the responsibilities that specifically relate to your position.
- Assist the Nominating Committee Chair in filling any vacancies on the Executive Committee or chair positions during the current administration
- Assist the Nominating Chair in selecting the Executive Committee and chair positions for the next administration

- Attend the Nominating Committee meeting following the Executive Committee meeting prior to the District Convention
- Make phone calls throughout the district when vacancies occur during the current administration or in selection of the next administration

Qualifications:

- Can take direction
- Motivated to complete a task
- Outgoing and friendly